

Snap Shot | Answer key

4 Family is what we shape it to be

4 b

Vocabulary

The various types of family

1. nuclear,
2. single-parent,
3. extended,
4. blended,
5. same-sex
6. adoptive
7. foster
8. grandparent-headed

4 d

Reading

Stepfamilies – to blend or unblend?

1	2	3	4	5	6
H	E	A	D	I	F

not used: B, G

4 f

Listening

Being lied to about one's identity

1. adopted in 1966 by American family, grew up in Fremont, California, adopted by loving family
2. flashbacks that turned out to be real memories, a photo in her adoption records
3. had been switched with another child
4. right to know one's origin / parents / identity
5. the scale on which it happened, the grief of all involved in the process
6. numbed, overwhelmed, full of grief
7. Korea, Guatemala, China, Colombia, India
8. formal apology, concrete action, funding and staff for investigative bodies, support for single-parent families, an end to international adoptions from Korea

4 h

Language in use

Becoming an adopted family

1	got / became	9	already
2	received / got / earned	10	would
3	changed / did / achieved	11	occurred
4	through / with	12	never
5	made	13	ahead / forward
6	supposed / meant	14	ability / talent / skill
7	into	15	complete / finance / support / fund
8	hit / began / started

4 i

Reading

Living in an immigrant family

- » Children from migrant families have to take on unfamiliar roles / grow up more quickly.
- » Children from migrant families accept their parents' culture and ethic.
- » They have a sense of gratitude for their parents.
- » Leaving home is a challenge for both parents and young people.
- » Children from migrant families have a huge influence of their parents.

4 k
Reading

Growing up with a single parent

1	the poorest kid
2	had / held multiple jobs
3	being normal / having brands
4	embarrassing / unbearable
5	were books and clothes
6	of an outsider / unpopular
7	self-reliant / class-conscious
8	admires his mother / her endurance / her understanding

Hint: This Snap Shot also ties in well with Unit 8 (“Gender and identity”) in Best Shots AHS. Student’s book 7 as well as Unit 4 (“A world on the move to diversity”) in Student’s book 8.