

Snap Shot | Answer key

5 Rethinking Thanksgiving

5 b Listening

Getting to know the Wampanoag

1. 100 to 2,000 / a thousand average
2. a huge plague
3. 50 to 90 percent
4. empty (abandoned) villages / bleached bones
5. two years before plague
6. they had a mission / it was God's providence

5 d Reading

Changing the perspective

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
J	F	D	A	I	G	B

not used: E, H

5 f Listening

Debunking the myths of Thanksgiving

- 1 The Myth of Harmony
- 2 The Thanksgiving Name
- 3 The Turkey Tale

5 h Language in use

Looking beneath the surface

1	community	8	interactions
2	incomplete	9	aggressors
3	truth	10	provisions
4	mourning	11	survival
5	stealing	12	deadly
6	evidence	13	enslave
7	historians	14	settlers

5 i Vocabulary

Time for revising the new words

1 Pilgrims	6 Squanto	11 territory
2 plague	7 indigenous	12 re(-)enactment
3 oppression	8 stereotype	13 truce
4 emissary	9 harvest	14 gourd
5 Wampanoag	10 venison	15 genocide

Teacher's note: Thanksgiving marks the beginning of the holiday season in the US. Celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November, it kicks off a festive period that includes Black Friday, Christmas, and New Year's Eve and Day. Together, these events make up a time filled with family gatherings, celebrations, and travel. You are warmly invited to refer to Christmas dilemmas for the end of the semester.