Health is going mainstream

by Anna Hesse

March 7, 2:15pm

According to statistics, young consumers are becoming more aware of what they eat these days. They seek fresh products, which are natural, organic and minimally processed. On a global level, youngsters are most willing to purchase premium goods due to health attributes. As far as it goes, they are learning from mistakes of the previous generation and are ready to change their eating habits towards healthier nutrition and are also ready to pay more for the quality of the products.
